

MEDICAL STUDENT PROTOCOL

Needlestick / Puncture Wound / Splash /
or Bodily Fluid Exposure (BBFE)

In the event that a MEDICAL STUDENT is exposed to blood or bodily fluid:

WASH	Wash exposed area with soap and water. If a mucous membrane exposure (eyes, nose, mouth), flush with water.
REPORT	Report to Nurse Manager (D) / Nurse Administrator (E/H/W) on unit where the exposure occurred. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complete an Accident/Injury Report and initiate source patient testing For assistance reaching the Nurse Manager/Nurse Administrator at MSH main campus, dial "0"
VISIT	If you are at MSH Main Campus , present for immediate evaluation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ISMMS Students at MSH main: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> M-F 9-4, ID in CAM 17 E 102nd St, 3rd floor All other times: go directly to the Emergency Department (ED) Visiting Students at MSH main: Go directly to the Emergency Department (ED) If you are rotating offsite , please see below
CONTACT	Contact the Student Health Center (SHC) to report your case and for follow up 17 East 102 St., 4 th floor, Room D4-246, (212) 241-6023 or studenthealth@mssm.edu Bring a copy of your Discharge/Visit Summary Report to your visit
FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY	Care related to an exposure is a non-billable service for students. ISMMS Students should not provide any insurance information for their visits to the emergency room or any other care environment related to the protocol.

D = Days :: E/H/W = Evenings/Holidays/Weekends

WHERE TO GO IN THE EVENT OF INJURY OR EXPOSURE: offsite rotators

If you are a medical student rotating at one of the following clinical sites, please visit the specified location

Bronx VA

130 W Kingsbridge Rd, Bronx, NY 10468
D: Occupational Health Services (6th Floor, Area 6C)
 (718) 584-9000, then dial x5175
 M–F 8 am–4pm
E/H/W: Emergency Department (Ground Level)
 (718) 584-9000, then dial x5255

Mount Sinai Beth Israel

317 E. 17 Street, New York, NY 10003
D: Employee Health Services (2nd Floor)
 (212) 420-2840
 M–F 8 am–4:30 pm
E/H/W: Emergency Department (Ground Level)
 First Avenue at 16th Street, New York, NY 10003

Elmhurst Hospital

79-01 Broadway, Elmhurst, NY 11373
D: Occupational Health Services (Room A1-27)
 M–Th 7 am–4 pm, F 8 am– 4 pm
 (718) 334-3030
E/H/W: Emergency Department (Ground Level)

Mount Sinai West

1000 Tenth Avenue, New York, NY 10019
D/E/H/W: Emergency Department (Ground Level)
 (212) 523-6800

Mount Sinai Morningside

111 Amsterdam Ave, New York, NY 10025
D/E/H/W: Emergency Department (Ground Level)
 (212) 523-3335 or (212) 523-3336

Mount Sinai Queens

25-10 30th Avenue, Astoria, NY 11102
D/E/H/W: Emergency Department (Ground Level)
 3019 Crescent Street, 30th Road, Astoria, NY 11102
 (718) 932-1000

Potentially Infectious body fluids include:

Blood / cerebrospinal fluid / pleural fluid / pericardial fluid / peritoneal fluid / amniotic fluid / synovial fluid / semen / vaginal secretions / any visibly bloody fluid / unfixed or under fixed tissues

Vomit, saliva, nasal secretions, sputum, tears, sweat, urine and feces are not considered infectious unless visibly contaminated with blood.

Source Patient Testing will be coordinated by Nurse Manager/Nurse Administrator, Provider, and Student Health

Questions or Concerns?! Call or email the SHC (212) 241-6023 or studenthealth@mssm.edu