

Dear Game Plan Participants,

We want to invite you to participate in our next Game Plan session on Wednesday, March 3, 2021, from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm (virtual format: Zoom). As we previously mentioned, the idea is that you must have a “game plan” to win in sports, and the same applies to success in academics. Our series allows you to hear the game plans from former (collegiate and professional) athletes to aid you in your preparation. Our next guest speaker is Angela Mercurio.

Angela Mercurio graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 2019 with degrees in Biochemistry and Women’s and Gender Studies. She was a triple jumper on the track and field team and a 3-Time All-American, 2019 Big Ten Champion, and 2-Time Canadian National Team Member. Her athletic, academic, leadership, and community service accolades culminated in her winning the 2019 NCAA Woman of the Year award. After graduating, she spent some time working at the Hospital for Special Surgery in NYC with the Women’s Sports Medicine Center. She is currently a first-year medical student at Harvard Medical School and is interested in sports medicine orthopedic surgery, mentorship, and authentic diversity and inclusion.

Please join us for a lively discussion! Please RSVP at this link to have an accurate headcount and receive the Zoom meeting information.
